

Professional Learning Opportunities Administration and professional staff are encouraged to seek and take advantage of professional learning opportunities. Any expenses or fees associated with such professional learning opportunities must be pre-approved by the Assistant Superintendent of Learning Services in order to be eligible for reimbursement.